

Cornerstone College Yanun evenings

Cornerstone college worked with Dave Booth to create Yanun evenings with students, staff and families. Participants gathered around a camp fire, had a feed and listen to Dave Booth share about Culture and knowledge.

Wakakirri anti-racism performance

Christies Beach Primary School consulted with Aboriginal community members to ensure the schools Wakakirri performance had community input

Creating a scar tree and yarning circle

Findon High School worked with Jack Buckskin to create a scar tree and a yarning circle in a public facing part of the school

Rusted tin mural development

Noarlunga Community Childrens Centre worked with Scott Rathman at Rusted Tin to create a community collaborative mural in the courtyard near the entry to the centre.

Exploring the Tjilbruke trail

Cardjin College - Galilee worked with Southern Cultural Immersion to create unit plans for exploring the Tjilbruke trail.